Letter No.884 dated 10th Dec.1925 from the Superintendent, Stationery Depôt, to the Secretary, Legis.Cl. and Rep. Assembly.

With reference to your letter No.3263 dated 1st inst. regarding the supply of pencils to your office, I have the honor to state that as it is difficult to gauge your exact requirements of pencils both for the Legis. Council and the Rep. Assembly, I beg that orders of Government may be kindly obtained and communicated as to the exact number of black lead pencils that may be supplied to each of the offices of the Legis. Council and the Rep. Assembly, just as the exact number is fixed in the case of the Ec. Conference office in G.O.No.G.2187-8/P & S 4-25-20 dated 2nd October 1925.
